Conco Services Corporation Surpasses One Million Man-Hours Free of OSHA Lost-Time Safety Incidents

Verona, PA (May 4, 2016) Conco Services Corporation announces that it has not encountered an OSHA Lost-Time safety incident in more than one million man-hours. This achievement took two-and-a-half years and has positioned Conco to provide services to companies with stringent safety standards.

“We are doing our due diligence,” says Craig Lawther, CSP, Conco’s Corporate Director of Safety. “We have a renewed focus on safety with updated safety procedures and, above all, effective supervisors who are making sure their people are following rules and working safely.”

In related news, Conco’s industrial division received an “Injury Free” award for zero injuries during 2015 at the Dow Chemical St. Charles Operations site. The industrial division was also nominated for an “Outstanding Safety Performance 2015” award in the Environmental Services - 2,000 to Less Than 10,000 Work Hours category.

Founded in 1923, Conco is the world’s leading provider of condenser and heat exchanger services to the power generation and industrial process industries with offices located in the US, Europe and Asia Pacific.
